EXHIBIT D - INDIVIDUAL DEBTOR'S STATEMENT OF COMPLIANCE WITH CREDIT COUNSELING REQUIREMENT

Warning: You must be able to check truthfully one of the five statements regarding credit counseling listed below. If you cannot do so, you are not eligible to file a bankruptcy case, and the court can dismiss any case you do file. If that happens, you will lose whatever filing fee you paid, and your creditors will be able to resume collection activities against you. If your case is dismissed and you file another bankruptcy case later, you may be required to pay a second filing fee and you may have to take extra steps to stop creditors' collection activities.

Every individual debtor must file this Exhibit D. If a joint petition is filed, each spouse must complete and file a separate Exhibit D. Check one of the five statements below and attach any documents as directed.

☒ 1. Within the 180 days before the filing of my bankruptcy case, I received a briefing from a credit counseling agency approved by the United States trustee or bankruptcy administrator that outlined the opportunities for available credit counseling and assisted me in performing a related budget analysis, and I have a certificate from the agency describing the services provided to me. Attach a copy of the certificate and a copy of any debt repayment plan developed through the agency.

☐ 2. Within the 180 days before the filing of my bankruptcy case, I received a briefing from a credit counseling agency approved by the United States trustee or bankruptcy administrator that outlined the opportunities for available credit counseling and assisted me in performing a related budget analysis, but I do not have a certificate from the agency describing the services provided to me. You must file a copy of a certificate from the agency describing the services provided to you and a copy of any debt repayment plan developed through the agency no later than 14 days after your bankruptcy case is filed.

☐ 3. I certify that I requested credit counseling services from an approved agency but was unable to obtain the services during the seven days from the time I made my request, and the following exigent circumstances merit a temporary waiver of the credit counseling requirement so I can file my bankruptcy case now. [Summarize exigent circumstances here.] _____

If your certification is satisfactory to the court, you must still obtain the credit counseling briefing within the first 30 days after you file your bankruptcy petition and promptly file a certificate from the agency that provided the counseling, together with a copy of any debt management plan developed through the agency. Failure to fulfill these requirements may result in dismissal of your case. Any extension of the 30-day deadline can be granted only for cause and is limited to a maximum of 15 days. Your case may also be dismissed if the court is not satisfied with your reasons for filing your bankruptcy case without first receiving a credit counseling briefing.

☐ 4. I am not required to receive a credit counseling briefing because of: [Check the applicable statement.] [Must be accompanied by a motion for determination by the court.]

☐ Incapacity. (Defined in 11 U.S.C. § 109(h)(4) as impaired by reason of mental illness or mental deficiency so as to be incapable of realizing and making rational decisions with respect to financial responsibilities.);

☐ Disability. (Defined in 11 U.S.C. § 109(h)(4) as physically impaired to the extent of being unable, after reasonable effort, to participate in a credit counseling briefing in person, by telephone, or through the Internet.);

☐ Active military duty in a military combat zone.

☐ 5. The United States trustee or bankruptcy administrator has determined that the credit counseling requirement of 11 U.S.C. § 109(h) does not apply in this district.

STATEMENT OF FINANCIAL AFFAIRS

This statement is to be completed by every debtor. Spouses filing a joint petition may file a single statement on which the information for both spouses is combined. If the case is filed under chapter 12 or chapter 13, a married debtor must furnish information for both spouses whether or not a joint petition is filed, unless the spouses are separated and a joint petition is not filed. An individual debtor engaged in business as a sole proprietor, partner, family farmer, or self-employed professional, should provide the information requested on this statement concerning all such activities as well as the individual's personal affairs. To indicate payments, transfers and the like to minor children, state the child's initials and the name and address of the child's parent or guardian, such as "A.B., a minor child, by John Doe, guardian." Do not disclose the child's name. See, 11 U.S.C. § 112; Fed. R. Bankr. P. 1007(m).

Questions 1 - 18 are to be completed by all debtors. NOTICE: This Agreement contains provisions requiring arbitration of fee disputes. Before you sign the agreement you should consider consulting with another lawyer about the advisability of making an agreement with mandatory arbitration requirements. Arbitration proceedings are ways to resolve disputes without the use of the court system. By entering into agreements that require arbitration as the way to resolve fee disputes, you give up your right to go to court to resolve these disputes by a judge or jury. These are important rights that should not be given up without careful consideration.

I. PARTIES & PURPOSE: This is an agreement for legal services entered into on the date shown below between Law Office of Jason Blust, LLC, or one of its wholly owned subsidiaries (hereinafter "JB") and the individual (or married couple) assigned to the record number indicated below (hereinafter "Client") relating to legal services in relation to bankruptcy and debt relief. The contract is solely between JB, any assigns, heirs, or related entities that may be formed in the future and not any individual, partner, member or employee of JB. JB is a debt relief agency and law firm that files bankruptcy cases on behalf of its clients. JB DOES NOT REPRESENT CLIENTS IN DEFENSE OF COLLECTION SUITS.

II. CLIENT OBLIGATIONS: JB reserves the right to withdraw or terminate the representation in the event Client does not meet his/her obligations.

Active Participation and Communication. Client agrees to actively participate and communicate with any and all JB staff during the duration of the bankruptcy case. This includes immediately providing updated contact information and any changes to Client's financial situation including, but not limited to, any state court hearing dates or foreclosure sale notices. Client's signature on this Contract shall be authorization for JB to file a bankruptcy petition for Client via the Bankruptcy Court's electronic filing system and all other subsequent filings through the Bankruptcy Court's electronic filing system. Client agrees to receive documents and/or correspondence from JB via either email or first class mail. Client agrees that JB can contact Client at any reasonable time in JB's sole discretion via email, text message, telephone, or postal mail.

Payment of Attorney Fees and Costs/Arbitration. Client agrees to pay all attorney fees and costs as disclosed herein in a timely manner and that fees and costs, as disclosed must be paid before the case is filed with the bankruptcy court. JB only represents Client and Client controls the representation even if the fee is paid by a third-party. JB and Client expressly agree to resolve fee disputes via Arbitration (see Section IX).

The "flat fee" for representation in a Chapter 7 case is $ 1000. This fee is a nonrefundable* "advance payment retainer". In a Chapter 7 case, Client agrees to pay all fees and costs prior to the filings of the bankruptcy case with the bankruptcy clerk's office. Client acknowledges that Client will not have the protection of the Automatic Stay in Bankruptcy pursuant to 11 U.S.C. 5362 until the bankruptcy case is filed. There may be additional fees charged by JB for delays caused by the Client, including Client's failure to pay fees in a timely manner, and failure to timely provide information and/or paperwork. Client expressly agrees that funds paid will be deposited in JB's operating account and are the property of JB.

The "flat fee" for representation in the Chapter 13 case is $ _____ plus costs. JB agrees to file the client's Chapter 13 case with the court for the payment of $ _____ and will accept the balance from Client's Chapter 13 payments. Any estimated chapter 13 monthly payment is subject to change and JB does not guarantee a particular chapter 13 payment.

In addition, there is a court filing fee totaling $ 335 (subject to change without notice) and optional document retrieval and financial counseling facilitation totaling $ 155 (subject to change without notice). Client expressly agrees that chapter 7 and chapter 13 fees paid are an advance payment retainer and not a security retainer and such arrangement is an express condition of JB's willingness to handle the case. An advance payment retainer is appropriate because work is being performed from the moment the firm is hired and continues through the relationship, even if a case is never filed with the court. In Chapter 13, the fixed flat fees and advance payment retainer are for pre-filing and pre-confirmation work. All fees paid are the property of the attorney and will be deposited into JB's operating account and are earned upon receipt, subject to refund only as provided in Section IV. Though the fee is fixed, in chapter 13's JB may apply to the court for additional fees, paid through the chapter 13 plan if there are extraordinary circumstances, such as extruded evidentiary hears, contested adversary proceedings, or appeals. See Section III for further details. Advance payment of costs may be held in a safe deposit box, a locked safe, a trust account, or any other secure place in JB's sole discretion until incurred and used to reimburse JB for payment. _____ Client's Initials.

Dishonored payments incur a fee of $25 + any additional fees and costs incurred by JB as a result of dishonored or stopped payments. Failure to pay can result in JB closing the file and terminating the attorney-client relationship (see Section IV). In the event Client's chapter 13 is dismissed prior to full payment of attorney fees. Client agrees and expressly authorizes the chapter 13 trustee to pay any money held to JB for payment of the balance owed. Client agrees that JB may retain counsel to collect any balances due and will be responsible for payment of any reasonable collection costs and fees, not less than $400. Client authorizes the collection of any additional fees from the chapter 13 trustee (if applicable). Client expressly agrees that fees tendered to JB by personal check may be converted and processed as ACH transaction. JB agrees to pursue third parties who may be liable for payment of fees, but failure of JB to collect from third parties does not relieve client of responsibility for payment. Client agrees that non-basis services are billed at the firms' customary hourly rate as described in Section IV. Billable hourly rates are subject to change. Some non-basic services may be provided at a flat fee rate, as agreed between the parties (see Section III).

Full Disclosure. Client agrees to truthfully, completely and accurately disclose all assets and their value, liability and their amount, income and expenses to JB any on any and all bankruptcy paperwork. In addition, client agrees to accurately answer any and all questions posed by JB and/or a representative or agent of the United States Trustee or as otherwise provided by law.

Proved Documentation & follow instructions. Client agrees to provide copies of any and all documentation requested by JB in a timely and organized manner. Client expressly acknowledges and agrees that JB has duties to the Court that require JB to reasonably seek documentary evidence that supports Clients' factual contentations before JB can sign off and file bankruptcy paperwork with the court. Such documentation includes, but is not limited to: pay advices for the six month time period before the filing of the bankruptcy case (client acknowledges that since the case is not filed immediately upon and signing of this contract that the six month time period changes as time passes), tax returns, property appraisals, recorded deeds (if applicable), recorded mortgages (if applicable), non-filing spouse's (or household member's) pay advices, and any other relevant information directly or indirectly related to the client's financial condition. Client further agrees that he/she will read and follow all instructions provided to Client and incorporated by reference and made a part of this Contract for services.

III. LAW FIRM OBLIGATIONS:

Use Best Efforts: In consideration of Client's obligations as stated in Section III, JB agrees to use its best efforts to obtain a satisfactory result for Client by providing basic legal services in connection with a bankruptcy case on an efficient and cost-effective basis. Client expressly agrees that JB makes no guarantee regarding the outcome of the bankruptcy case, including but not limited to, ability and qualification for filing chapter 7 or chapter 13 bankruptcy, successful discharge of any particular debt, the amount of a chapter 13 plan payment, and/or whether or not JB can successfully reduce the balance of secured liens. JB offers its financial situation, and/or facts as revealed after review of documentation that could affect in any way any advice JB gives Client.

Staffing: JB structures its practice as a group practice. JB does not guarantee any minimum level of participation in a case by any individual employee, member, attorney, paralegal, or partner of the firm. Multiple attorneys and staff may work on various aspects of the case assigned by JB in its sole discretion in compliance with all applicable rules of professional conduct. JB expects to perform the bulk of the work, but reserves the right to utilize other attorneys, paralegals, and litigation/clerical assistants where appropriate. In addition, Client authorizes JB, at its discretion, to have attorneys within the firm, or outside counsel, review clients file to explore other potential causes of action client may have.

Provide Basic Bankruptcy Services: JB, in consideration for Client's obligations as stated in Section III, agrees to provide basic legal services as required to file either a Chapter 7 or Chapter 13 Bankruptcy case, the Chapter determined as mutually agreed and indicated below. Basic legal services include, but are not limited to: pre-filing verification of bankruptcy representation; post-filing and pre-discharge contract with creditors; pre-filing advice and counsel to Client; advice during the case concerning the nature and effect of the applicable bankruptcy rules, including up to 15 telephone calls or 4 additional in-person meetings; exemption advice and planning; preparation and filing of a bankruptcy petition; preparation and filing of schedules and statements as required by bankruptcy status, rules, local rules, and any applicable standing orders of courts of completion jurisdiction; representation at the meeting of creditors pursuant to §341 of the Bankruptcy Code; representation at any confirmation hearings pursuant to §1324 (if applicable); setting valuation disputes prior to confirmation in Chapter 13, submitting information pursuant to requests from the trustee, including submitting information in response to case audits requested by the United States Trustee; negotiation and counsel in relation to reaffirmation agreements pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §524; and other regular and routine services not specifically stated, including additional terms as may be described in Section VIII, if applicable. Client expressly agrees that in Chapter 7, JB will not file the bankruptcy petition and schedules with the court until all fees and costs have been paid in full. In addition, JB will not file the bankruptcy cases with the court until all required documentation has been provided; all required documents are timely signed, reviewed, and verified.

Client further agrees that the above-described fees cover basic services only. There may be additional fees for non-basic services in addition to those disclosed above. Subject to the applicability of any local rules, standing orders, or additional contracts, non-basic services for which additional fees may apply include, but are not limited to: Adversary proceedings pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §523 or §727; excessive phone calls (more than 15) or in-person consultations (more than 4); motions to dismiss for client's failure to attend court hearings or failure to provide requested documentation; action to enforce the automatic stay pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §362; actions to enforce the discharge injunction; Rule 2004 Examinations; depositions; interrogatories or other discovery proceedings; contested objections to confirmation of a Chapter 13 plan; amended creditor schedules (typically $150 in chapter 7 + $30 filing fee in all chapters, subject to change); amended asset and/or income/expense schedules due to Client's failure to provide full disclosure; document retrieval services; facilitation of credit counseling and/or financial management courses; post-discharge services; appraisal services; contested matters, rescheduled §341 meetings because of Client's failure to appear at a scheduled meeting (typically $150 in chapter 7); motions to avoid liens (typically $260 per motion); proceedings to strip mortgages when applicable; and motions for redemption pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §722 (typically $600); conversion of a case from one chapter to another (requires an additional in-person meeting and results in additional reasonable fees and costs as mutually agreed); and/or proceedings to reopen a closed case for any reason.

IV. TERMINATION OF SERVICES (Refund Policy): The parties may terminate services at any time. Termination of services by Client must be in writing. JB may terminate services for failure of Client to fulfill any of Client's contractual obligations as identified in Section II of this agreement. In either event, Client may be entitled to a refund of part of the nonrefundable fee based upon quantum meruit. The factors considered include: time spent, including time spent answering telephone calls, processing, organizing and responding to any correspondence; case status; case progress; and the amount of work remaining to complete the case. Analysis of time is calculated in tenths of an hour increments, rounded up to the next tenth of an hour. Attorney time is worth $250-$450 per hour depending on the experience of the attorney performing the service. Non-attorney professional time is worth $75 per hour. Hourly rates are subject to periodic review and revision. JB will also consider the progress of the case when determining a reasonable refund. It is impossible to determine a fair refund until a detailed analysis is performed on a case-by-case basis. Refunds, if any will be sent to Client at Client's last known address with a reasonable amount of time. In the event Client is deceased or incapacitated, or if the fee was paid by a third party, refunds, if any, are the property of the Client and will only be released to the Client or an authorized representative of the Client's estate. In the event Client terminates services after a bankruptcy case has been filed, JB is given a reasonable time to file withdrawal and/or substitution of counsel documents with the clerk of court. JB expressly reserves the right to enforce a previous award of fees and to seek payment of any outstanding balance of legal fees. The parties expressly agree that JB's representation automatically terminates upon the closing of the case by the Clerk of Court. Client expressly agrees that JB is authorized to contact Client in the future, even after the conclusion of the case via mail, telephone, electronic mail or text message regarding any future JB products and/or services.

V. LIMITED POWER OF ATTORNEY: Client expressly agrees that signature on this contract grants JB a Limited Power of Attorney for the purposes of carrying out the bankruptcy representation. Such power includes, but is not limited to, the power to obtain Client's tax returns or transcripts from either the IRS or any person or entity consulted in regards to tax preparation; the ability to obtain information and discuss Client's situation with any of Client's secured creditors; and in the event the bankruptcy is dismissed or converted prior to completion, JB may apply funds on hand with the Chapter 13 trustee that would otherwise be forwarded to Client towards the balance owed JB, if any, and/or the Chapter 7 fee, if applicable, by granting JB the right to endorse Client's name upon checks from the trustee. JB will provide an accounting of all funds received from the trustee and applied.

VI. RETENTION AND DISPOSITION OF RECORDS: JB will retain records as required by applicable law in your state; generally at least (5) years. JB reserves the right to store records electronically. JB encourages Client to keep and maintain copies of all bankruptcy related matters. Client may request a copy of the file by sending a written request. JB reserves the right to charge a reasonable retrieval and duplication fee of at least $35.

VII. RECEIPT OF MANDATORY NOTICE AND DISCLOSURE: The Bankruptcy Abuse and Prevention and Consumer Protection Act of 2005 require JB to provide mandatory notices/disclosures to Client. Your signature on this contract is an acknowledgment that Client has received, read and understood the two(2) separate documents entitled " §525(a) Notice", and "Important Information About Bankruptcy Assistance Services From an Attorney or bankruptcy Petition Preparer."

VII. ENTIRE AGREEMENT: The entire contract between the Parties is contained in this instrument. Parties agree to all of the terms and conditions set forth herein and acknowledge that they have read and understand this Agreement. In the event Client is filing a case in a jurisdiction where the local bankruptcy court has adopted any rule procedure or general order regarding relationship between the Attorney and the Client, then such rule, procedure, Court Order, "Rights & Responsibilities Agreement," or "Model Retention Agreement" and its corresponding rights and obligations is specifically incorporated by reference into this Agreement as a part hereof as additional terms, and both parties understand they must comply with its terms which supersede and control all provisions of this contract. Client signature on this document serves as an acknowledgement and agreement by Client that client has been informed of such a rule, procedure, Order "Rights and Responsibilities Agreement," or "Model Retention Agreement" and has agreed to be bound by its additional terms and conditions. In the event provisions of this Agreement contradict with the provisions in any Rule, Procedure, Court Order, "Rights & Responsibilities Agreement," and/or "Model Retention Agreement" the provisions of the Rules, Procedure, Court Order, "Rights & Responsibilities Agreement," or "Model Retention Agreement" would control.

IX. BINDING ARBITRATION: In the event of any controversy, claim or dispute between the parties arising out of or relating to this agreement or the breach, termination, enforcement, interpretation, unconscionability or validity thereof, including the termination of the scope or applicability of this agreement to arbitrate, shall be determined by arbitration in the county and state in which the consumer resides at the time of the agreement in accordance with the laws of the state of consumer's residence at the time of the agreement or agreements to be made in and to be performed in the state of the consumer's residence. The parties agree, the arbitration shall be administered by the American Arbitration Association ("AAA") pursuant to its rules and procedures and an arbitrator shall be selected by the AAA. The arbitrator shall be neutral and independent and shall comply with the AAA code of ethics. The award rendered by the arbitrator shall be final and shall not be subject to vacation or modification. Judgment on the award made by the arbitrator may be entered in any court having jurisdiction over the parties. If either party fails to comply with the arbitrator's award, the injured party may petition the circuit court for enforcement. The parties agree that either party may bring claims against the other only in his/her or its individual capacity and not as a plaintiff or class member in any purported class or representative proceeding. Further, the parties agree that the arbitrator may not consolidate proceedings of more than one person's claims, and may not otherwise preside over any form of representative or class proceeding. The parties shall share the cost of arbitration, including attorney's fees, equally. If the consumer's share of the cost is greater than $1,000.00 (One-thousand dollars), JB will pay the consumer's share of costs in excess of that amount. In the event a party fails to proceed with arbitration, unsuccessfully challenges the arbitrator's award, or fails to comply with the arbitrator's award, the other party is entitled to costs of suit, including a reasonable attorney's fee for having to compel arbitration or defend or enforce the award. Binding Arbitration means that both parties give up the right to a trial by jury. It also means that both parties give up the right to appeal from the arbitrator's ruling except for a narrow range of issues that can or may be appealed. It also means that discovery may be severely limited by the arbitrator. This section and arbitration requirement shall survive any termination.

X. SEVERABILITY: In the event any provision of this agreement is found to be unenforceable for any reason by a court of competent jurisdiction, only the offending clause shall be stricken from the agreement and the remainder of the agreement shall remain in full force and effect.

I/We hereby agree to and acknowledge all of the terms above and I/we retain and authorize JB to file a bankruptcy on my/our behalf:

UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY COURT
NORTHERN DISTRICT OF ILLINOIS
NOTICE TO CONSUMER DEBTOR(S) UNDER § 342(b)
OF THE BANKRUPTCY CODE

In accordance with § 342(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, this notice to individuals with primarily consumer debts: (1) Describes briefly the services available from credit counseling services; (2) Describes briefly the purposes, benefits and costs of the four types of bankruptcy proceedings you may commence; and (3) Informs you about bankruptcy crimes and notifies you that the Attorney General may examine all information you supply in connection with a bankruptcy case.

You are cautioned that bankruptcy law is complicated and not easily described. Thus, you may wish to seek the advice of an attorney to learn of your rights and responsibilities should you decide to file a petition. Court employees cannot give you legal advice.

Notices from the bankruptcy court are sent to the mailing address you list on your bankruptcy petition. In order to ensure that you receive information about events concerning your case, Bankruptcy Rule 4002 requires that you notify the court of any changes in your address. If you are filing a joint case (a single bankruptcy case for two individuals married to each other), and each spouse lists the same mailing address on the bankruptcy petition, you and your spouse will generally receive a single copy of each notice mailed from the bankruptcy court in a jointly-addressed envelope, unless you file a statement with the court requesting that each spouse receive a separate copy of all notices.

1. Services Available from Credit Counseling Agencies

With limited exceptions, § 109(h) of the Bankruptcy Code requires that all individual debtors who file for bankruptcy relief on or after October 17, 2005, receive a briefing that outlines the available opportunities for credit counseling and provides assistance in performing a budget analysis. The briefing must be given within 180 days before the bankruptcy filing. The briefing may be provided individually or in a group (including briefings conducted by telephone or on the Internet) and must be provided by a nonprofit budget and credit counseling agency approved by the United States trustee or bankruptcy administrator. The clerk of the bankruptcy court has a list that you may consult of the approved budget and credit counseling agencies. Each debtor in a joint case must complete the briefing.

In addition, after filing a bankruptcy case, an individual debtor generally must complete a financial management instructional course before he or she can receive a discharge. The clerk also has a list of approved financial management instructional courses. Each debtor in a joint case must complete the course.

2. The Four Chapters of the Bankruptcy Code Available to Individual Consumer Debtors

Chapter 7: Liquidation ($245 filing fee, $75 administrative fee, $15 trustee surcharge: Total Fee $335)

Chapter 7 is designed for debtors in financial difficulty who do not have the ability to pay their existing debts. Debtors whose debts are primarily consumer debts are subject to a "means test" designed to determine whether the case should be permitted to proceed under chapter 7. If your income is greater than the median income for your state of residence and family size, in some cases, the United States trustee (or bankruptcy administrator), the trustee, or creditors have the right to file a motion requesting that the court dismiss your case under § 707(b) of the Code. It is up to the court to decide whether the case should be dismissed.

Under chapter 7, you may claim certain of your property as exempt under governing law. A trustee may have the right to take possession of and sell the remaining property that is not exempt and use the sale proceeds to pay your creditors.

The purpose of filing a chapter 7 case is to obtain a discharge of your existing debts. If, however, you are found to have committed certain kinds of improper conduct described in the Bankruptcy Code, the court may deny your discharge and, if it does, the purpose for which you filed the bankruptcy petition will be defeated.

Even if you receive a general discharge, some particular debts are not discharged under the law. Therefore, you may still be responsible for most taxes and student loans; debts incurred to pay nondischargeable taxes; domestic support and property settlement obligations; most fines, penalties, forfeitures, and criminal restitution obligations; certain debts which are not properly listed in your bankruptcy papers; and debts for death or personal injury caused by operating a motor vehicle, vessel, or aircraft while intoxicated from alcohol or drugs. Also, if a creditor can prove that a debt arose from fraud, breach of fiduciary duty, or theft, or from a willful and malicious injury, the bankruptcy court may determine that the debt is not discharged.

Chapter 13: Repayment of All or Part of the Debts of an Individual with Regular Income ($235 filing fee, $75 administrative fee: Total Fee $310)

Chapter 13 is designed for individuals with regular income who would like to pay all or part of their debts in installments over a period of time. You are only eligible for chapter 13 if your debts do not exceed certain dollar amounts set forth in the Bankruptcy Code.

Under chapter 13, you must file with the court a plan to repay your creditors all or part of the money that you owe them, using your future earnings. The period allowed by the court to repay your debts may be three years or five years, depending upon your income and other factors. The court must approve your plan before it can take effect.

After completing the payments under your plan, your debts are generally discharged except for domestic support obligations; most student loans; certain taxes; most criminal fines and restitution obligations; certain debts which are not properly listed in your bankruptcy papers; certain debts for acts that caused death or personal injury; and certain long term secured obligations.

Chapter 11: Reorganization ($1,167 filing fee, $550 administrative fee: Total Fee $1,717)

Chapter 11 is designed for the reorganization of a business but is also available to consumer debtors. Its provisions are quite complicated, and any decision by an individual to file a chapter 11 petition should be reviewed with an attorney.

Chapter 12: Family Farmer or Fisherman ($200 filing fee, $75 administrative fee: Total Fee $275)

Chapter 12 is designed to permit family farmers and fishermen to repay their debts over a period of time from future earnings and is similar to chapter 13. The eligibility requirements are restrictive, limiting its use to those whose income arises primarily from a family-owned farm or commercial fishing operation.

3. Bankruptcy Crimes and Availability of Bankruptcy Papers to Law Enforcement Officials

A person who knowingly and fraudulently conceals assets or makes a false oath or statement under penalty of perjury, either orally or in writing, in connection with a bankruptcy case is subject to a fine, imprisonment, or both. All information supplied by a debtor in connection with a bankruptcy case is subject to examination by the Attorney General acting through the Office of the United States Trustee, the Office of the United States Attorney, and other components and employees of the Department of Justice.

WARNING: Section 521(a)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code requires that you promptly file detailed information regarding your creditors, assets, liabilities, income, expenses and general financial condition. Your bankruptcy case may be dismissed if this information is not filed with the court within the time deadlines set by the Bankruptcy Code, the Bankruptcy Rules, and the local rules of the court. The documents and the deadlines for filing them are listed on Form B200, which is posted at http://www.uscourts.gov/bkforms/bankruptcy_forms.html#procedure.
